Callum Macaulay - Former professional European Tour player.

If you're between 15 and 22 and want to take your talent for golf to the next level - and gain an internationally recognised degree - a US scholarship through FirstPoint USA offers incredible opportunities.

No less than 65% of the professionals on the USPGA have entered the sport through collegiate golf. And a FirstPoint USA scholarship has been the starting point for famous names such as Danny Willett and Russel Knox.

Gaining internationally recognised degrees, whilst honing their skills at collegiate and intercollegiate matches, and perhaps even the national championships.
